Job Description – Female Program Facilitator

Youth Odyssey is looking for a caring and dedicated individual to help facilitate their adventure challenge program and summer camps. We are based out of Corpus Christi, TX on a mission to provide youth development for at-risk boys and girls, ages 10-17, through adventure challenge programming. This is a rewarding job for those who desire to make an impact in our community.

Responsibilities (varies based on need):

- Lead Adventure Challenge Programs:
- Monday through Thursday, afternoon programs
- Day trips: kayaking and ropes courses
- Weekend camping trips (3 days)
- Program preparation and reporting
- Week long Summer Camps (seasonal)
- Weekly staff meetings
- Assist with logistics and program preparations
- Special projects based on needs and individual strengths (curriculum development, fundraising, events, grants, marketing, maintenance - vehicles and equipment, social media)

We are looking for someone who:

- Holds a degree in a related field or have adequate experience
- Has great communication skills
- Is a self-starter who takes initiative
- Is able to work well with a variety of team members
- Has a valid Drivers License

Perks of the job:

- Paid benefits (medical, dental, vision)
- Pro-deals on outdoor equipment
- Paid vacation and sick leave
- Non-program related Ropes Course pay (once trained and checked off)

Job Type: Full-time

Compensation 25 – 30K depending on experience.
